MARYVILLE COLLEGE • MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

MAY WE PRESENT ... THE GREAT SCOT ...

Some say you'll find him in Anderson tower, or perhaps burrowing under the streets on his way from Carnegie to Baldwin. Others claim he's in classrooms, the executive council, the chaplain's office. Still others claim to know him among the widespread alumni of Maryville College. He's the shyness of Mr. Layman, the orange and garnet tie of Dr. Copeland, the wry humor of Dean McClelland. When you want to define him, he's never around; when you despair, he might be there; when there's a festive, carefree mood abroad, he's always there. Everywhere, yet nowhere—that's the Great Scot.

Enough. The Great Scot can't suddenly appear on this page. Look at that artist's conception of him—no spirit of a college could look like that! Or could he? Follow him through the past year; look for him. Above all, draw your own conclusions.

. . . IN A YEAR AT MARYVILLE

September again . . . another year . . . wonder who's back, who's new . . .

. . . Before school, the faculty retreated (what'll they do when school starts?) . . . swimming pools and laughter, group discussions and vital issues, but little heard beyond the retreat. . . students wonder; knowing, they might be less critical . . . but progress is made, tentatively at first, perhaps more boldly later.

Sir will you carry my baggage up for me—(bet that's the last time anyone calls me "Sir.") . . . Erwin's disciples strain manfully, while Buckwalter's Broads prepare the more difficult task—making freshman girls at home in the dorm . . . how will we ever get these freshmen to mix? . . . Too late, they already have! . . . Then the Sing Along With Issac (the crazy man who runs around the mountains with a bell tower) . . . Slurp, pop—there goes a watermelon seed . . . Penny Edelmeier joins the Honey Bee Club again. . .

Theta, Theta—what would half of them do with a “hairy-chested man”? . . . RUSH WEEK—Are those the only choices?—well, no, there’s always the GDI’s . . . Intramurals, fun trips to the mountains—just join a society—pressure, pressure, pressure . . . You pledged what??!!. . . Pay your dues now—be the first in your pledge group. . . .

Salt Cellar or Salt Seller? . . . Why don’t they just call it a Coffeehouse? . . . no mattresses on the floor . . . We’ve got to get it ready for opening Saturday night . . . hammer, nails, ouch d--- it! . . . bright yellow paint? . . . well, that’s done—but it’s only temporary . . . Dr. Hunter sure packs ‘em in—whew! . . . Folksingers! How atmospheric (later change to “Folksingers!? Again?”) . . . dorm chairs and tables, dim lighting, a crude stage and many people . . . bet the salt of the earth comes from all this sweat . . . four kinds of coffee . . . UCCF is off to a good start . . . I was holding hands with a girl in the Salt Cellar—Well, did you know her name? . . . Dialogue, darn it!

BEAT . . . the hell out of ‘em, Scots . . . Whose pep rally this week . . . wonder if the fire will start after all that rain . . . here comes the band . . . off to a winning start . . . Cheer, we can’t hear Ya . . . Skit, Skat, how’s about that?....

The Salt Cellar . . . just needs a coat of bright yellow paint.

Big Three Conference—Drs. Campbell, Blake, and Copeland.

To the cultural . . . beautiful pianos . . . "Schellenger Dumps Nelson & Neal Tickets on the Market"—I've got to miss it for J.B. rehearsals . . . fascination of duo-pianists . . . Great performance—wonder where they're off to now? . . .

God and Satan square off for J.B.'s soul—he sends them both packing . . . women from the bowels of the earth . . . power of the writing . . . bitterness, pompousness . . . "What temptors?" . . . "We can never know". . .

Really?!—The Grand Dragon, here . . . "Do you have permission to take those pictures?" . . . "We feel that the citizens of East Tennessee should know part of the infamous record of this man" . . . Eugene Carson Blake, huge man—talks to those kids like a natural . . . an attempt to repress the story of the KKK presence on campus . . . Crowds on campus . . . Union— isn't that a seminary?

Lecture Series—Sir Bernard Lovell—"The Exploration of Outer Space" . . . scientist and educator . . . recipient of many award in arts and sciences. . .

No. 10—Maryville's Little All-American, Benny Monroe.

Clement Stone, Founder's Day Speaker, with Dr. Cope-land and Mr. Horst . . . "And how do you feel, Dr. Copeland?"

"Seventy-six Trombones".

"How's your P.M.A.!?—"T-E-R-R-I-F-I-C!" . . . challenging insight into a large segment of our business community . . . narrowly outraged reactions . . . in a sense, a perfect irony for Founder's Day and Homecoming

—yet, something that Maryville should do more often: listen to the diverse elements of the world . . . "Think, think, think" . . . "—wonder if he'll fall over his chair?" . . .

"Queen of all the HIGHlands" . . .

President and Mrs. Copeland . . . the Homecoming Dance.

Drum Major Hal Laster.

Erwin and Scotchmer . . . the UCCF stuffed float.

Look at that Kappa Phi float—it's gorgeous! . . . Wonder how she got up there? . . . Come on Scots—enough sloppy play . . . did the soccer team win? . . . Football victory over Millsaps; alumni barbeque—where are all the benches; dance, dance, dance . . . midnight, and all the young princesses turn into—their dormitories. . . .

. . . Yep, we got first-place float—sure worked hard enough for it . . . G'nite.

Thumbs Up . . . another touchdown.

Rev. Edlar G. Hawkins, Moderator of the General Assembly, UPUSA, speaks in the Salt Cellar.

What Is Man?; tremendous volume of the choir and brass . . . "Come of Age!"—the challenge of our times . . . silent awe.

Guitar and harmonica, chapel Poot and the night watchman (does he bite?)—first place. . . UCCF finally found something for the Key Men and Nu Gammas to do after Freshman Welcome—will it be religious? . . . Barnwarming? . . . proceeds kick off the Fred Hope Fund Drive . . . perfect end to the day of vacation—Thanksgiving on many levels. . .

Maybe it's redheads who have more fun . . . Full house for a recital: . . . She's a fantastic schoen.

Rehearsal for special Vesper Service, "What is Man?"

Rich Boyd presents roses to—Barnwarming King Ross Kerr or Queen Barbara Pettigrew?

Carnival Night at Barnwarming.

Fred Hope?—bet the school just made him up . . . A long tradition of giving. The project this year—a lab technicians' course for the Francis Newton Hospital, Ferozepore, India.

Fall formal fell—never thought anyone would equal KΦXB's decorations, but they did it—doesn't even look like the old barn . . . I got in with no tickets . . . Does anyone have a flashlight?—guess you'll have to find your own coat . . . good band . . . midnight again—wonder if that's when the housemothers turn into pumpkins (bet it's the other way around!)?

First Prize at Barnwarming . . . Mr. Hurst, the nightwatchman, and David Scotchmer.

"Laud to the Nativity" . . . Christmas Vespers . . . choirs, mimes, dancers, orchestra . . . directed by Mr. Lou Mize.

Christmas Vespers, untraditional pageantry—art, music, drama . . . Messiah (chorus of thousands—Handel would croak, absolutely croak!) . . . Christmas readings and caroling . . . tests galore; must be getting near Christmas or something. . . . the December play, "Harvey"—has anyone seen a large white poobah—er, excuse me, a rabbit? . . . Wonder if it'll snow?—on Christmas?—silly. Our very own Christmas tree . . . well-meant, but ill-taken caroling around Home Avenue—"poor little rich kids". . . . No snow yet?—gloom. . . . Good grief, how will I ever get packed and get out of here? "Will I see you before you go tomorrow?" . . . froze all the way home—no heater, and 2 -3 outside—yech! . . . Study? Ha! I didn't even move for two weeks. . . .

Marty Miller, Connie Williams, Ginny Wells, Alan Childs . . . in the production of "Harvey."

"Burn, ye special studies, and be merry, for tomorrow the editor strikes."

Ken Young's better side—on our very own ski slope.

Chapel—we must be back at school. . . . "I'd like to take advantage of my position at the lecturn. . . ." "As you know, our development campaign had a goal of $920,000 to reach by January first; Sometimes we realize our goals, sometimes not. We asked for your help in realizing this one. Well (resignedly), we got only 1 million. . . ." Closest feeling of kinship I've had to the school yet.

Snow! Tons of it? . . . no, just some. . . . Burn, ye special studies, and be merry, for tomorrow the editor strikes . . . week-long cramming and exhaustion— isn't there a better way to do this? . . . "I'm going to sleep for at least 48 hours." . . . "I'm done, done, DONE!" . . . Weariness—quick, recuperate before the next semester. . .

Mr. Keins' Senior Recital.

Snow! Tons of it? Yes!!! "Let's walk and listen to the quiet." Crunch, crunch, crunch . . . "You stamped what out in the snow?" Crunch, crunch, crunch . . . too beautiful to stay in, too cold to stay out . . . crunch, crunch, crunch.

Snowballing Pros—perity Hall.

Treasurer's Office . . . semester's bills . . . Mr. Blevins.

Miss Hennemuth . . . long lines . . . out of books . . . another check.

It's about these Southerners (Marvin Beard) who have never seen snow.

I've got to go through this on a day off? Lines . . . books . . . fees . . . no money . . . here we go again (to nowhere?) "Now that the old semester is gone, we hope that you'll take stock of your past performance, and work to improve your record." . . .

Did you see Goldfinger?—That James Bond turns me on . . . Mary Poppins—what a comeback to Goldfinger (remember that Goldfinger—initiations are coming).

January . . . good time for indoor sport!

Artist Series—Kaleidoscope Players . . . I've just read some Sandburg and want to go so badly . . . wish they'd chosen better selections . . . Kaleidoscope of what. . .

"Jonathan Gresham, Trumpetist" . . . first band member to give a senior recital, first Porkie, too.

Sergio Rojas, lecturing on "The Coming Explosion in Latin America" . . . former Cuban ambassador to Great Britain . . . participant in Bay of Pigs invasion . . . economic and diplomatic expert. . .

A grant from the National Science Foundation . . . new equipment . . . alumnus Hargrave and Dr. Griffiths.

Mr. Hurst . . . savor in the Salt Cellar.

Spring: a young man's fancy . . .

Docherty: "You weren't listening, Watson!"

Dr. Docherty . . . Margie Stewart.

Coventry Cathedral, old and new . . . contemporary religious expression—an art exhibit, tied in with the February Meetings, opening after Dr. Bloy's organ recital. . . .

February Meetings speaker—Dr. Docherty, a Scot not at all dour . . . The poetry added to the prose of reality—that's joy in life . . . fitting the square world into the round hole in his head. . . . Joe's biographies again . . . panels, dorm meetings, private conferences . . . ten addresses in one accent! . . . Save your chapel cuts and take 'em now . . . "not here to present answers, but to get you to ask questions—the right questions. . . ."

Harry Harter coordinates a Fine Arts Festival . . . lasting a whole month? Recitals, exhibits, visiting performers, plays—hmmm, no folk singers?! The March Artist Series, two choirs and a symphony . . . they had notes we'd never heard before. Two performances with the Knoxville Symphony and the college choirs—Rachmaninoff's Bells.

Phaedra, a Cretan woman? (undoubtedly) . . . a Graecian chorus . . . Will she ever learn her lines? . . . Chaste Hippolytus dies by Theseus' hand . . . a tortured woman's false cry . . . a bitter purse.

Spring Lecture Series—Maryville alumni . . . Otto D. Pflanze, Fulbright scholar, author and educator; J. Edward Kidder, Professor of Art, International Christian University in Japan.

The San Francisco Contemporary Dancers.

A Goya, a Gainsborough, and two Zuccarellis on display in the Fine Arts Center—then locked in the vault! Culture comes to Maryville College . . . the gift of an alumnus as part of the financial campaign.

Unique . . . The San Francisco Contemporary Dancers . . . imaginative — Selections from Schuman, Ravel, Brubeck. . .

"CHARTER-HARTER" . . . Got the robes packed? All right, who stole the tour manager? Take the bus, and leave the hell-raising to us . . . "I Left my Soul with Dr. Harter" . . . Home again, the Alma Mater . . . I'm exhausted—hope I go next year!

Dogwoods and marble benches . . . azaleas in bloom . . . young couples in bloom . . . annual trecks to the woods . . . monsoons in season . . . limping track, baseball, and tennis stars . . . can't study on a day like this—must be Spring!

Sunrise on Easter — brrrr, it's cold this early in the morning. . . . Choir breakfasts with the Copelands. . . . "When the sun comes over the Chilhowees" . . . Happy Easter . . . I'm going back to bed. . . .

A few dogs and the Choir and some people say that is Maryville.

Mr. Swenson in the gallery.

Commencement's coming, so are The Fantastiks . . . String those daisies (more greens than daisies)—carried 'em up, carry 'em back again . . . will it be a nice day for Commencement? . . . Kinda sad, isn't it? . . . Wonder if it's hot under those black robes . . . What's his degree?—check his tassel. New Alumni, varied futures . . . out of the womb into the reality—painful? or just another schedule. . . Our seniors plan to do—this summer and then—next year. . . Marriages right and left, freed from the restraint of school, now face the restraint of themselves. Promises, hopes, fears, crying, rejoicing . . . where from here? Who knows?—but there's one way to find out. Shall we . . .

Good-bye, Maryville. I'll be back. . .

Junior Class Officers

Diligent and studious — that is, as we see it . . . . A class picnic, dances, a yearbook, pep rallies— but more important were majors, beginning special studies, core requirements, extra hours. The well-trodden ways of juniors—running from the library to the dining hall—have carried the Class of 1966 from sunny September through blue January to welcome June, with welcome enthusiasm.

Sophomore Class Officers

Nimble and spright—where there's activity there's a sophomore . . . . A class picnic in Cade's Cove, the "best pep rally of the year" (according to Hutch), a sophomore cheering section, a winning float—as well as a shoe scramble, dances, and parties—marked the activities of our sophomore Class of 1967.

Freshman Class Officers

Slow and deliberate—but not missing a thing . . . orientation, elections, Rush Week, the Faculty Reception . . . the Homecoming float, "Lift the Chorus, Wake the Echoes," the freshman-sophomore dance and picnics, the traditional talent show . . . Following the beaten path from Carnegie to Baldwin—and wearing a new one to the bookstore mailboxes—the Class of 1968 (we are happy to observe) has taken its place in our hearts as a typical Maryville freshman class.

HONORS

Man of the year

Mr. Richard Cesna Boyd

A more-than-hearty handshake, a joker in passing . . . a critical yet reflecting mind—leading the UCCF in its first difficult year. . . . Perhaps to be remembered as a great Scot . . . a man of spirit—chosen to be our Man of the Year.

A persistent smile, a quiet countenance . . . a willingness to work—behind the scenes . . . a determined spirit—which finally caught Bob McGruther. . . Perhaps to be remembered as a great Scot . . . a beautiful woman—chosen to be our Woman of the Year.

Woman of the year

Miss Nancy Jane Buckwalter

United Campus Christian Fellowship

Significant on campus last spring—the change from long-standing YM-YW affiliations to membership in the National United Campus Christian Fellowship . . . allowing closer communication with other college campuses and more available program resources. Guided by a cabinet, but open to all students and faculty . . . a program of old favorites (freshman welcome, Barnwarming, Christmas readings, Time Out, weekly programs, work at the Children's Home) and new interests (the Salt Cellar, a coffeehouse in the chapel basement, and the Feedback, a newspaper of student and faculty ideas and opinions) . . . . An extensive program—its purpose, to present a challenge of Christian witness and fellowship in a growing academic institution.

Nu Gammas and Key Men

The core of the UCCF Social Commission . . . chosen in the spring to plan the next fall's freshmen welcome. Fun, frolic, and hard work—as they plan Barnwarming, Christmas readings and caroling, hikes in the Smokies, the spring retreat . . . Elected—to work—but also an honor.

Varsity Football

Head Coach Howard "Monk" Tomlinson gazes over a practice on Honaker Field.

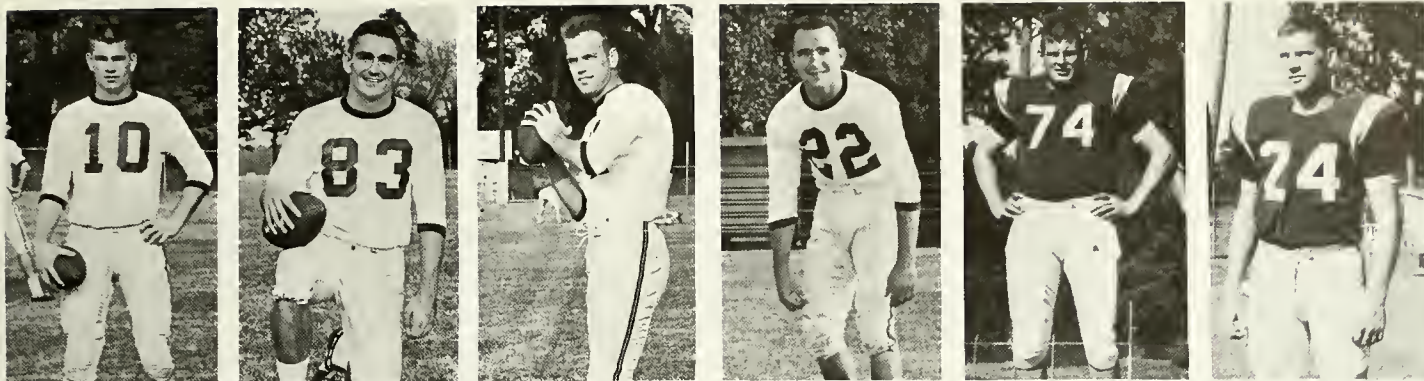

A new head coach, Howard "Monk" Tomlinson . . . a successful season in 1963 . . . the promise of an outstanding season in 1964 . . . result, an 8-1 record. A severe loss in the Guilford game—Roland McClanahan, speedy slot-back and groundgainer—might have been the difference in the Carson-Newman game . . .

Football banquet, January 19—twenty-eight players received letters . . . senior quarterback Monroe, Most Valuable Player Award; Archie Anderson, Most Improved Player Award; Don Story, Most Outstanding First Year Letterman . . . special recognition, senior lettermen Monroe, Napier, Abbott, McClanahan, Slagle, Lingenfelter, Martin.

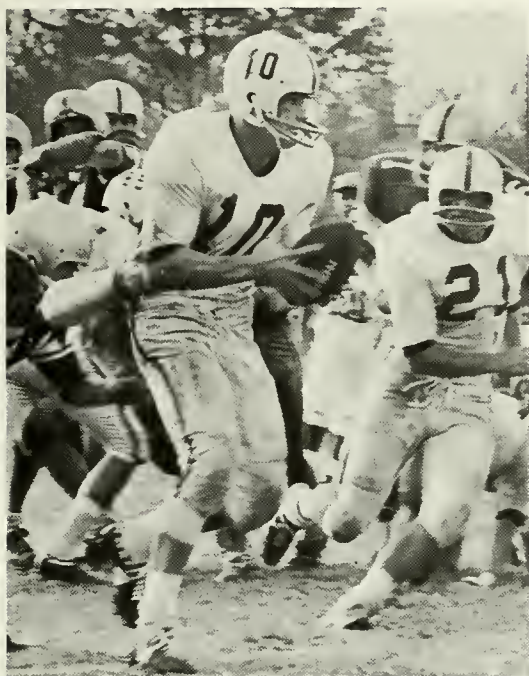

The 1964 season ended—an 8-1 record . . . Coach Tomlinson anticipating a better defensive team, seeing excellent prospects for the 1965 season.

The Amos Alonzo Stagg Century of Physical Fitness Award—presented each week to the player contributing the most to team effort. Winners of the Stagg Awards: Benny Monroe, Roland

Monroe bursts beyond the Millsaps line—the start of a 55-yard TD run.

Benny Monroe—one of Maryville's best all-time quarterbacks, named to the Little All-American squad. Directing the Scot offensive attack . . . compiling more than 1000 yards, rushing and passing. A two-time Stagg winner . . . the Most Valuable Player. From Coach Tomlinson, "Benny has developed into a fine player and certainly deserves the awards he received. His leadership ability was excellent, but he would not have been effective without good support from the entire squad."

| Livingston St. | 0 | 6 | 16 | 0—22  |

Three TD's—McClanahan, Dalton, Webb. Monroe—a 35-yd. field goal and 9-yd. run in 4th quarter.

SQUEEZE PAST QUAKERS

MC 7 6 6 0—19
Guilford 7 10 0 0—17

H. H. Lingenfelter, throwing TD passes to Dalton and Anderson, led Scots past a determined Guilford squad. Slagle—final TD on a 30-yd. run.

MARCH BY MAJORS

MC 7 0 6 8—21
Millsaps 6 0 0 6—12

Mike White—leading defense—supplied victory margin . . . Monroe — leading offense — a pass to Dalton, a plunge across the stripe, a 55-yd. run—three TD's.

DEFENSE STOPS LIONS

Mars Hill 0 0 0 0—0

Strong defense—the hope for victory. Pryor spearheaded the tackles, Dutton stopped the Lion's drive.

EAGLES TIP SCOTS

MC 0 6 0 8—14
Carson-Newman 6 3 7 8—24

Arch-rivals mar MC's record . . . Scots feel absence of McClanahan. Leading ground-gainers, Slagle and Rogers.

| Shorter     | 33—74 | Mars Hill          | 78—92 |

Spurts and lags, with a 2-18 record in the back of their minds . . . improved team play, though a lack in second-half performance . . . "Crook" (the erstwhile Jack Llewellyn) and his outside shot; Alexander steaming downcourt with his short hair in disarray; Moyers asserting his right to a rebound; Kip's bandage—for sympathy?—he still moves awfully quick; Denny McGowan shows most improvement; powerful Mike Dalton passing instead of receiving. . . . Lost another one? By only 2 (or is it 4 this time?) D--n!. . . silver trophy from Suncoast Classic Tournament in St. Pete—third place, and Dave Alexander on the All-Tourney team . . . Ups and downs, but a fast-moving, though often frustrating, year . . . there's always next year—down with shin splints!

We run as much as track men . . . Coach K. really works us hard . . . what serve? . . . bright prospects—return of experienced Rich Marshall, Lynn Howard . . . Pete Park adds a freshman sparkle after beating out Mono . . . Not quite the depth of Owers-Marston-Marx . . . oh, well, there's always the TIAC Tournament . . . Clay courts red in the heat of the afternoon . . . Get your letter now and you can keep your jacket . . . Funny hats became the vogue . . . spirit is high—let's go . . .

Bad weather . . . Lynn and Bob forced inside.

Track

Everybody has to run? . . . Stiff legs, shortness of breath . . . Bell's been running since September . . . We won't work Alexander as hard this year . . . lots of middle distance men . . . "Monk" promises many meets—including State, NCAA—wonder how many we'll see? . . . no meets before Spring vacation . . . distance men sprint, sprinters run distances . . . weak field events . . . Long season, hard work . . . push yourself, kick it in . . . done with that race?—get ready for the next one . . . It's over; now we relax until next year . . .

W.A.A. Council

"M" Club

Women's Intramurals

W.A.A. . . . varied program of sports . . . from hockey to ping pong . . . first golf tournament . . . All-Star volleyball team . . . All-Star game won by Chi Beta . . . society struggle over trophy . . .

Men's Intramurals

Sig's first "Stinkin' Shoe" since '60 . . . Styles upends Petty . . . Titans: volleyball champs—get an invitation to Knoxville . . . the Martyrs . . . intramurals?—nope, this is murder . . . another chance for societies to square off (don't they always?) . . . wonder what happened to the girl's football game? . . . from poor to very good—we've got 'em all. . . .

Who let the girls into the men's Intramurals???

Lynn Howard and Cole Piper . . . intramural flagball.

In Memory Of Great Scots

Coach Lombe Scott Honaker . . . died September, 1964. Coach at Maryville College in three major sports—for more than forty years each. . . . Drove his players hard, and they loved it . . . A memorial service on Honaker Field by a new president in honor of an old coach . . . The Honaker Club.

Dr. Lea Callaway . . . died December, 1964. A Maryville native, everything in college . . . a star half-back: hit men hard and then apologized—after the whistle! (A Carson-Newman graduate, enrolling his daughter at Maryville, asked if the spirit was the same as when he played football against Lea Callaway.) . . . Baseball, tennis, wrestling, track . . . debate, yearbook, honor society. Respected surgeon, Mayor of Maryville for eight years, member of the Board of Directors of Maryville College.

Miss Gertrude Meiselwitz . . . died December, 1964. Chairman of the Department of Home Economics for twenty-nine years—sending notes every Christmas to all her past students. . . . Resident of the Home Management House . . . her domain, the third and fourth floors of Fayerweather Science Hall . . . "That individual" . . . expert teacher, dedicated servant, devoting most of her time to students and campus life.

David Raymond Evans . . . died April 11, 1965. A student of the arts, receiver of many creative talents, a large man in stature, growing in knowledge. . . . "A God given beautiful voice." A singer in his own right, he held much devotion for the choir; a creator of characters on the stage, he could play nearly any role; a psychology major, he delighted in his class of retarded children. Determined and growing, a graduating senior, already a young Scot.

Alma Mater

Where Chilhowee's lofty mountains
Pierce the southern blue
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
Noble, grand, and true.

Chorus
Orange, Garnet, float forever,
Ensign of our hill!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to Maryville!

As thy hilltop crowned with cedars
Ever green appears,
So thy memory fresh shall linger
Through life's smiles and tears.

Lift the chorus, wake the echoes,
Make the welkin ring!
Hail the queen of all the highlands,
Loud her praises sing!

Another year is past . . . the Great Scot was here—but don't expect to find him again the same as he's been know before . . . and don't expect next year's students and faculty to recognize your Great Scot. After all, he's been different for each of us this year—exasperating, rewarding, irritating, joyous, aloof, friendly. He'll keep changing—kind of makes you wonder, doesn't it . . . G'nite.
